

Policy on Membership Suspension, Expulsion, and Reinstatement
Adopted by the Board of Directors April 12, 2005
Revised by the Board of Directors on September 9, 2008

It shall be the policy of the Association that a member who, after failure to pay his dues, is suspended by the Board may be reinstated to membership anytime before July 1st of the Association fiscal year following his or her suspension by making a written request to the Board for reinstatement, paying the delinquent dues, paying a $10.00 late fee and paying a $25.00 reinstatement fee.

A member who has been suspended from membership of the Association for failure to pay his or her dues and who does not request reinstatement before July 1st of the Association fiscal year following his or her suspension, may be readmitted to membership of the Association by making application and paying the required dues as provided in the Bylaws of the Association.
